Anna Cook, who was committed to jail yesterday in default of security and bail, was released this morning, upon promising to quit the city at once, and to remain away one year. MAGISTRATES' OFFICE.—George Washington Ackers, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct was fined $5 and costs, but not having the required amount, was discharged upon the payment of $3 and costs.

A few night ago Mr. Newman, who lives in Orange county, heard a noise at his hog-pen. He took his double-barreled gun and went in the direction of the noise. When near the pen, he heard persons running off, and, guided by the sound, fired both barrels of his gun. The next day a physician was sent for to see a negro in the neighborhood, who was found to have a gun-shot wound in the arm. He was, of course, known to be one of the party at Mr. Newman's hog-pen. In a day or two, another negro was man found to be missing, and, on searching near where the firing was done, his dead body was found.

We see it stated that the Rev. George W. Carter, is now in Virginia, and that he will, in the next few weeks, have the opportunity of seeing many of his former friends. He arrived in Richmond from Texas a few days ago. He is in excellent health. It will be recollected that during the war he came on to Virginia from Texas, the State of his adoption, to look after the Texas soldiers' welfare. He then returned to Texas, raised a regiment, and was made a Division Commander, and served to the end of the war in the Trans-Mississippi Department. He has entered upon the practice of law at Galveston, Texas, in connection with Judge Wright, who will reside and practice in New York city. Mr. Carter is native of this State.

The Fredericksburg Herald speaking of the "institution" of "Black yer boots" having found its way to that place, says that "the 'Confederiks' have gone so long without having their boots blackened—indeed without boots sometimes to blacken—that we fear the enterprising 'black yer boots?' will not drive a profitable trade." "Black yer boots," arrived in Alexandria very soon after the late war commenced.

We were presented yesterday by a young friend, with a sprig, freshly plucked from a cherry tree, now in full bloom. The delicate companions of the buds given to us, have been seduced by the syren songs of autumn breezes into rushing upon a wild, reckless, but certain future. Alas! they will never arrive at fruition—the cutting frosts, and chilling blasts of winter, upon whose purlieu they have had the timidity to enter, have doomed them to wither and die—draw the moral!

It is reported that at a meeting of the Directors of the National Express Company, held on Thursday, Gen. P. T. Moore was selected as the Superintendent for the State of Virginia. Applicants for situations can therefore, it is presumed, address him at Richmond. It is also reported that Gen. Johnston's salary, as President of the Company, will be $10,000 per annum.

A man who was unable to walk or talk, was picked up last night by the watch on the wharf, and carried to the watch house. Upon his person was found a two ounce laudanum vial, empty. A physician was called, suitable remedies adopted, and this morning he was well enough to walk off.

In the following table, the first column represents the number of square miles in each county; the second, the aggregate population to the square mile in 1860; the third, the number of thousand acres in "improved farms;" the fourth, the number of thousand acres in "unimproved farms;" and the fifth, the average value of the land per acre as assessed for taxation in 1860:

THE MARKET, this morning, owing to the bad weather, was not as fully furnished, as it generally is, on Saturdays—but, still, there was a tolerable supply from the country. We have no change to notice in the prices of meats or vegetables. Butter was selling at from 50 to 60 cts.

THE CHOLERA.

The steamer Atlanta, from London, arrived at N. York, is reported by Dr. Burdett, the quarantine surgeon, to have had fifteen deaths by Cholera, out of fifty or sixty cases, during the voyage. A special meeting of the Health Commissioners was called yesterday to draft a memorial to the Government asking for the use of a portion of Sandy Hook as a quarantine station. The appearance of the Cholera on this side of the Atlantic is not unexpected; but, we fear, in most of the cities and towns proper precautionary measures have not been adopted. The Atlanta was sent to quarantine immediately upon her arrival, and all intercourse with her prohibited.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, our Carriers did not make their usual semi-monthly collections from our subscribers on their route, in the eastern section of the city, to-day. They will call upon their subscribers on Monday.
